

A RESOLUTION REGARDING THE FREEDOM OF RELIGION

Whereas the freedoms of speech and religion are foundational to the Constitution of the United States of America, and

Whereas there have been increasing attacks upon Christian symbols in the public arena, and

Whereas the First Amendment to the Constitution of the United States of America states that “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof,”

Be it resolved that the Aiken County Republican Party supports the public display of the Ten Commandments in public venues as protected by this First Amendment right.
